

The Matchstick Architects ~ All That's In Between ~ Lyrics by Dar Maloney

EVERYDAY	RENEGADE FRIEND	THE MOMENT	BROKEN	LITTLE THINGS
I don't want to want you Like I do but I do I don't want to miss you Like I do but I do Everything is wrong Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday	Hold on You're a long way from home With nothing left to lose And no one left to phone Hang on I'm coming for you It's true It's hard to remember Just when it began But this is how it ends My renegade friend This how it ends	And when you see the tears You'll get the point my dear That's how you know you're alive The train comes rolling in And never leaves the station again Don't worry, I'll be by your side It's not by choice love's so elusive So hard to come by So hard to keep I only know it fuels the moment Whenever you speak my name Speak my name	I'm a believer I've been transformed I came to bear witness From the day I was born I try not to linger Too long in the plight I find comfort in darkness And love in the light	When my mama was a young girl Her mama took her by the hand She said Darlin' don't you ever waste a worry When that big old world starts closing in Just think about life and what's important It's all about love and making friends
I don't want to need you Like I do but I do I don't want to say it Cause it's true It's true Everything is wrong Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday	So breathe now There's nothing to decide From a shout to a whisper You've reached the other side So hang on I'm coming for you It's true It's hard to remember Just when it began But this is how it ends My renegade friend This how it ends	You say the world is round I say it's upside down How will we ever survive? My heart is black and blue While yours is shinny and new I think it's a time for goodbyes It's not by choice love's so elusive So hard to come by So hard to keep I only know it fuels the moment Whenever you speak my name Speak my name	I am not broken I am still whole I'm not forsaken I've still got my soul	The little things oh they make life worth living The little things oh well I just can't deny The little things oh, well the taking and giving The little things oh yeah, they keep me hanging around Hanging around
Everything is wrong Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday	Do you remember those days On canyon drive? We listened to Bowie Just to stay alive	It's not by choice love's so elusive So hard to come by So hard to keep I only know it fuels the moment Whenever you speak my name Speak my name	A curse and a blessing So I've been told Is when your heart has been broken But still you have grown I'm a survivor I hide my scars I find comfort in darkness And love in the light	Now that I am so much older You know I think I understand the meaning of life is living simply You know that I'm doing the best I can It's all about lightening up the darkness It's all about love in the end
I don't want to love you Like I do but I do I don't want to say it Cause it's true It's true Everything is wrong Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday	So stand clear Or step off the divide There's nothing to see here Unless you don't survive Hang on I'm coming for you It's true It's hard to remember Just when it began But this is how it ends My renegade friend This how it ends	READY	I am not broken I am still whole I'm not forsaken I've still got my soul	The little things oh they make life worth living The little things oh well I just can't deny The little things oh, well the taking and giving The little things oh yeah, they keep me hanging around Hanging around Hanging around Hanging around Hanging around
WHAT DO I SAY	SAD BUT TRUE	Thunder cracks the silence Clouds mask the sky Been up since early this morning Trying to figure out why The power of love is so almighty It can bring you to your knees I want to be ready Ready Ready when it comes for me I want to be ready I want to be ready When it comes for me	ALL THAT'S IN BETWEEN	How do you feel about it now you know You just can't live without the ebb and flow Of the little things
Frost on the windows Looking down on the square The books that you read The empty blue chair A table for one A room full of you Alone in the dark Reading yesterday's news	I remember all you said It still echoes in my head Oh no, there you go again I remember every word How the door slammed And you swore that you'd never Come back again Well ain't love funny sometimes Sometimes you know you can't win	Now when we meet Take my hand You smile so sweet As if you understand The mystery that runs so deep I want to be ready Ready Ready when it comes for me I want to be ready I want to be ready When it comes for me	It's all the same to me If you don't set yourself free It's gonna leave you bound And drive you underground	How do you feel about it now you know You just can't live without the ebb and flow
What if I don't know What if I can't say What if I am all alone at the end of the day? What do I say?	I remember every heartbeat I remember every tear That you brought my way Now I'm Drowning	I want to be ready	Don't let it get you down Don't let it go You've got to learn to hold yourself It's always easier When you console The best friend that you ever had That you ever had	The little things oh they make life worth living The little things oh well I just can't deny The little things oh well the taking and giving The little things oh yeah, they keep me hanging around Hanging around Hanging around Hanging around Hanging around
I want to get closer And know what it's like To hear your slow breathing In the middle of the night To feel you against me With every goodbye I'm looking for something To keep me alive	Cause when the lights go down all around me And there's nowhere left to go I'll be loving you Sad but true	Now when it comes I'll be satisfied When it comes You know I'm gonna be mystified I said now, when it comes I'll be sanctified I want to be ready Ready Ready when it comes for me I want to be ready I want to be ready When it comes for me	Don't let it get you down Don't let it go You've got to learn to hold yourself It's always easier When you console The best friend that you ever had That you ever had	Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday
What if I don't know What if I can't say What if I am all alone at the end of the day? And what if I can't show you how the pain of it remains Covering the tender skin that used to bear your name	I remember every heartbeat I remember every tear That you brought my way Now I'm Drowning	I want to be ready	I said don't let it get you down Don't let it go You've got to learn to hold yourself It's always easier When you console The best friend that you ever had That you ever had	Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday
I feel so invisible There's no hand upon my knee It's so criminal When there's nothing Nothing left to feel	Cause when the lights go down all around me And there's nowhere left to go When the stars fall down all around me I'll be standing all alone And I'll be loving you Sad but true Loving you Sad but true	I want to be ready		Will it ever change Waiting on a heartache Everyday
What if I don't know What if I can't say What if I am all alone at the end of the day And what if I can't show you how the pain of it remains Covering the tender skin that used to bear your name What do I say?
